Introductory Guide to extended Safety Data Sheets (eSDS)

8 and 9 March 2023, Online

Producers and importers of hazardous substances are obliged to provide a safety data sheet (SDS) which includes information on the chemical product as well as its safe handling. It is the most important communication tool in the value chain. For hazardous substances registered above 10 tonnes p.a. an extended SDS (eSDS) is needed. Here, the conditions for safe use are derived based on so-called exposure scenarios.

This course will give you insights into the structure and content of the eSDS as well as the exposure scenarios. You will learn how to read and understand the eSDS to correctly assess risks and use substances safely.

Learning objectives:

- Gain a basic understanding of the structure and content of the eSDS
- Learn how to read, understand and interpret information from the eSDS
- Understand how to apply legal obligations with respect to the exposure scenario compliance check

Wednesday, 8 March | 09:00 – 13:00
